2. Address: _____
3. Telephone: _____
4. Temple/Shrine Center: _____ 5. Unit: _____

BASIC CLOWN ACTIVITIES

In a short paragraph on separate paper describe your nominee's clowning activities during the period. The reviewing committee will be considering such items as the number and type of clowning activities he was engaged in during that period, so be sure to include all pertinent information. They will want to consider how many appearances he made and what type they were. How many circuses; Stage appearances; Parties (birthday or similar); Promotions; Hospital visits; How many activities were as part of groups and how many were solo; What percent of the total appearances were free; How many were sponsored by (or under the jurisdiction of) the ISCA; A Regional Shrine Clown Association; A Shrine Temple/Center Unit; A Masonic organization; The general public or none?

ADDITIONAL ACTIVITIES RELATED TO CLOWNING

In a second short paragraph, tell us whether your nominee has met all the requirements for the Red Nose Award for 2019 (except for actually having received it). Have any of his activities been in support of the Sneaker Fund? What were they, and how much money did he raise? Did he attend the ISCA Mid-Winter or Imperial Convention this year? Did he compete at either? Results? Has he written or produced clown skits? Built clown props or made clown costumes? Has he taught classes during that period in some aspect of clowning? Has he written any articles on clowning that were published during that period? What is his clown character? If he does not work alone, what groups does he work with? In a third short paragraph tell us why you believe your nominee should be named the International Shrine Clown Association Clown of the Year for 2019.
